S. F. Heywood came near having a serious fire Tuesday evening. One of the boys lighted a match to find something in a clothes' closet in a dark room, and carelessly threw down his match. Some time later they smelled burning clothing, and when they began looking for the fire, they found the clothes' closet in flames. By the means of their engine and hose, the fire was soon extinguished. It would have taken but a few minutes for the entire house to be in flames, as it was lumber throughout. As it was, considerable clothing was burned.

PIMA SCHOOL NEWS

We are getting a little enthusiastic over clubs other than student government, such as pig clubs, corn clubs, etc.

Mr. Parks, from the State University, visited us and delivered an address on agriculture and the above-mentioned clubs, and stated the necessity of such in this agricultural region.

As for our student government, it has done a good deal to help the students reform. The judge is not so busy as at first and the officers make fewer arrests.

In manual training, the boys have completed their milk stools and are at present making book cases, vises, etc.

In domestic art, we girls have finished our sewing bags and are now busy making sewing aprons. The boys were kind enough to make us an ironing board, on which to press our sewing.

Seventh grade A and eight grade's room average in attendance was the highest of any room for the month of September, it being 99.3 per cent. But the average for this month will not be so high, as there has been a great number of absences on account of sickness.

For the past three weeks our volleyball and base ball teams have been practicing, to play with Thatcher on the 22d of this month. We hope no matter which side is defeated, that the defeat will be taken as well as it was taken at the last game played between the Thatcher and Pima schools.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Oscar Tyler died at the home of Bishop Frank Tyler, in Thatcher, Saturday afternoon, about 5:30 o'clock, after an illness lasting several weeks.

Mrs. Tyler gave birth to a child at her home in Redland about ten days ago, and as a result, she was so very ill that Dr. Pratt advised that she be taken to Thatcher, where she could receive immediate medical attention. Accordingly she was brought to the home of Bishop Tyler, where she died a week later.

She had been frail for some time with stomach trouble and the complication caused her death. She leaves eleven children, two of whom are married.

The funeral services were held in the Thatcher Church, Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. The Thatcher choir was in attendance. As Mrs. Tyler had been a faithful religion class worker, a number of Religion Class children were at her funeral to sing a hymn. Prayer was offered by Samuel Claridge.

Selection by the choir.
Talk by John Bilby.
Solo, Zola Webster, of Central.
Talk, by Bishop Peck, of Bryce.

Duet, by Mrs. Effie Montierth and Mrs. Roanna Heilbock.

All the speakers told of the integrity and faithfulness of Mrs. Tyler.

Woman's Suffrage Loses in New Jersey

New Jersey registered at the polls Tuesday an emphatic no to women's appeal for the ballot. Indications shortly after midnight were that the white and yellow banners of "Votes for Women" had fluttered down to defeat in each of the state's twenty-one counties and that the majority against the adoption of the constitutional amendment to enfranchise women was between 50,000 and 60,000.

President Wilson voted in favor of woman's suffrage, but his own precinct in Princeton voted two to one against the amendment.
